"Gotessons management and board wishes to thank Anders Olsson for his valuable contribution to Gotessons and wish him all the best in the future," says Lars Nordin, Chairman of the Board. At the same time we welcome Emil Johansson as new CEO for both Gotessons and AM Acoustics and we are convinced that Emil, whom we already know well, will take on this new role and make the best for both companies.

Emil started his career at Gotessons as early as the age of 15. During his studies at Chalmers and the Technical University of Jönköping, Emil worked part-time at Gotessons. After finishing his studies Emil continued at the company, where he demonstrated great passion and good leadership. Since 2007 Emil is a co-owner of Gotessons. During his years at Gotessons, Emil has had important roles such as IT Manager and HR Manager. Since 2012 he also has had the role as COO.

Johan Götesson, Creative Director, is very pleased with Emil Johansson as new CEO for Gotessons and AM Acoustics.

"I had Emil as a proposal already in 2016 when I wanted to leave the role as CEO. At that time he was not ready to enter the role, but is now confident to assume the challenge", says Johan and continues. "During his time as COO he demonstrated the leadership that is required to take Gotessons to new heights. Emil has a large trust fond from all employees and it is nice that the Gotessons spirit now gets a natural torch carrier," concludes Johan Götesson.
